

EIGHTH ANNUAL CHILDREN OF ABRAHAM PEACE WALK

Jews, Christians, Muslims, and others walking for peace

Sunday, September 11, 2011, 2:00 PM–6:00 PM

Join us as we walk together in a spirit of peace: Jews, Christians, Muslims and all people of good will walking as we remember those who died on 9/11 and commemorate the spirit of friendship that supported so many thereafter. After stopping at various houses of worship and a local firehouse we will walk across the Brooklyn Bridge. We'll end in lower Manhattan as we support the emergence of a new community center ("Charlotte's Place") while deepening our interfaith connections.

Please email to your lists. Youth groups and musical performers are welcomed. Additional co-sponsors welcome.

At 2:00 PM, we'll gather at the Dawood Mosque (143 State Street, Brooklyn). West on State Street. Right onto Clinton. Left on Remsen. Short visit at local houses of worship and at a local firehouse, where we will bring a gift of support and connection. Then we'll proceed along Cadman Plaza West. At Washington Street (a.k.a. Cadman Plaza East), take underpass on left, go up stairway to Brooklyn Bridge Pedestrian Path. On Manhattan side, we'll head south along Park Row. At Broadway, head south. Right on Cedar. Left on Trinity. Right on Rector. Right on Greenwich Street to end location: "Charlotte's Place" community center (109 Greenwich Street).

Refreshments will be served. All ages welcome.
